AFI Grant Amount	$100,000
Nonfederal Support	$100,000
Project Period	September 2005 – September 2010
Highlights	Spokane Neighborhood Action Program (SNAP) will expand its existing AFI Project and offer 44 IDAs for homeownership, post-secondary education, and microenterprise. The match rate is $2 to $1, up to $2,000 in participant savings. SNAP anticipates tapping additional nonfederal funds from a new State IDA funding initiative.
Target Population	Spokane County, Washington.
Grantee/Collaborative Description	SNAP is a Community Action Agency and is part of the Spokane IDA Network, which will provide policy input and participant referrals. SNAP will manage the AFI Project and tap into its existing programs to recruit and prepare participants for saving, such as a specialized money management and banking project developed by SNAP and two credit unions. Financial institution partners include Farmers and Merchants Bank, US Bank, Wells Fargo Bank, Sterling Savings Bank, and Numerica Credit Union. Washington Trust Bank manages the project reserve account.
